

Informed Consent for Testing Services

Welcome and thank you for choosing Whittaker Psychological Services for your psychological testing needs.

Testing services include a review of record, administration and scoring of tests, interpretation of results, as well as report writing. Occasionally, it can include consultations with other professionals (doctors, teachers, and psychologists to name a few).

The evaluation is done to:

- make a diagnosis
- make recommendations for educational, behavioral and social/emotional planning

Fees and Payment

Insurances are not accepted for testing services.

The fee for testing services is $300 per hour. To schedule testing, you will need to sign this testing agreement and pay in full prior to the administration.
